

Train hits, kills Barstow man in Oro Grande

September 18, 2013 12:24 PM

Rebecca Howes, Staff Writer

ORO GRANDE • A Barstow man was killed after he was struck by a BNSF Railway Co. train while crossing the railroad tracks in the vicinity of Bryman Road and Turner Road Tuesday night, San Bernardino County Sheriff-Coroner officials said.

Jose Ceballos, 38, of Barstow, was pronounced dead at the scene at 11:22 p.m. according to coroner officials.

San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department personnel received a report of a pedestrian struck by a train at 10:52 p.m. and responded to the scene along with BNSF personnel.

The Victor Valley Sheriff's Station is investigating the incident.

The reason why Ceballos was on the tracks was not immediately known.

Anyone with information about the incident can call Deputy Chase Ash at 760-552-6800.

Callers who wish to remain anonymous can contact the WeTip hotline at 800-782-7463 or go online to www.wetip.com.

Rebecca Howes can be reached at rhowes@vvdailypress.com or at 760-951-6276.