The Clark County coroner's office has identified the man who was struck and killed by a car Sunday night in the southwest valley.

Steven Dywane Courtney, 47, was crossing Flamingo Road near Decatur Boulevard when he was struck by a pickup about 10:15 p.m., Las Vegas police said. He was not in a crosswalk.

Courtney was taken to University Medical Center where he died.

The driver of the pickup stayed at the site and was not charged.
