

REDS KILL BARSTOW BOY

MAYNARD CLAYPOOL DIES IN KOREAN FIGHTING

Maynard Claypool, son of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Claypool was killed in action in Korea, it was learned here this week.

He was killed in action according to information relayed to Mrs. D.L. Carter by her daughter, Mrs. Maynard Claypool of Los Angeles.

Maynard embarked for Korea in service of the U.S. Army last July, following his basic training. He was married to the former Wanda Carter on June 24. He graduated from Barstow High School in 1948 and attended California Polytechnic College.

Dr. and Mrs. Claypool are former residents of Barstow, where he served as principal of Barstow High School for 12 years. They now reside in Japan where he is attached to the government educational service. The family is well known in the community and has many friends here.

Young Mrs. Claypool arrived here this week to be with her parents. She has been taking nurse's training in L.A.
